PREACHER'S CORNER

"How God Cultivates Faith"

The fourth chapter of Daniel finds king Nebuchadnezzar boasting about his accomplishments as ruler over an empire that God gave him. Success, even temporary success, can create an attitude of boasting as one who was the sole and primary source of everything necessary for success. He would soon realize that his accomplishments had more to do with what God allowed instead of personal attributes. God gave him a spirit of mental illness, the same as what Daniel interpreted from the king's dream. Nebuchadnezzar sought to elevate himself but learned that humility produced far greater joy. The chapter ended with Daniel making this proclamation in verse 37.

"Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble." God is an awesome God!
