TESTIMONIAL:

Phone Calls From Heaven

Shortly after my wife passed I also lost my dog & faithful companion. Not too long after I was rushed to the hospital for life saving surgery. When I finally received the doctor's clearance I packed up and rode my motorcycle to Illinois to visit my daughter. One evening while sitting on her porch I asked God: "Why am I still here? Why was my life spared?" Immediately my phone rang. Now I never get more than 3 calls a year unless they are from salesmen. To my surprise it was a friend I had not seen in years. She was having family problems and of all people sought me out for advice. We prayed together for some time.

Almost as soon as we hung up my phone rang again. This time from another friend I had not talked to in years. He was struggling with alcoholism and wanted my encouragement and wisdom. I convinced him to get involved with his local church. After we hung up, you guessed it, my phone rang again. Before answering I looked to the heavens and said "OK I get it Lord. I now know why I am still here.
